GUIDANCE ON HANDLING FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUESTS

Note 1. What is Freedom of Information?

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOI) came into force on 30th November 2000. FOI gives you the right of access to information held by Sevenoaks District Council (the Council) although the Council may refuse access to the information if that information falls within any of FOI's 24 exemptions. The exemptions protect against the disclosure of information that would harm commercial interests, information provided in confidence, personal information and other important interests.

Note 2. What can I ask for?

Your right to ask for information only relates to information held by the Council at the time you make your request. 'Information' may be in any form e.g. a paper document, computerised records, printouts, maps, plans, microfilm, microfiche, audio-visual material, etc. FOI provides a right to 'information' rather than to records or documents. Although you are not required to specify any particular document, you must describe the information you are requesting in as much detail as possible. The Council publishes a wide range of information. You may first wish to check the Council's Publication Scheme to find out whether the information you are requesting has already been published. A copy of the Scheme may be obtained from the Freedom of Information Co-ordinator at the address detailed in Note 6 below or by logging onto www.sevenoaks.gov.uk

Note 3. Do I need to give a reason to see information?

NO. You do not have to give a reason as to why you want to see any information. The Council must give you an explanation if you are not given what you ask for.

Note 4. Can I ask for personal information about myself?

NO. A request for personal information about yourself must be made under the Data Protection Act 1998 and not FOI.

Note 5. Can I ask for personal information about a third party?

YES. Personal Information relating to a third party will be dealt with under FOI. However, before you are given access to personal information relating to a third party, you may be asked to provide proof of the third party's consent to the disclosure.

Note 6. How do I make a request for information?

Requests/applications must be in legible form i.e. in writing and capable of being used for subsequent reference. Your request may be sent to the Council by electronic means such as e-mail. Try to provide as much information as possible to enable the Council to identify and locate the information which you are seeking or requesting. You may use the form entitled 'Request for Access to Information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000' also available from the Freedom of Information Co-ordinator. Your request must be addressed to:

The Freedom of Information Co-ordinator, Sevenoaks District Council

Argyle Road, Sevenoaks, Kent TN13 1HG

Tel: 01732 227000

Fax: 01732 740693

DX: 30006 Sevenoaks

Email: FOI@sevenoaks.gov.uk

Website: www.sevenoaks.gov.uk

You must provide a name and address for correspondence (an email address will satisfy this requirement).

Note 7. How do I make a request for information if I am suffering from a disability, am ill or illiterate?

If you are unable to put your request in writing perhaps as a result of illiteracy, disability or illness, please ask another person or agency (such as the Citizens Advice Bureau) to help you or to make the request on your behalf. Requests for further assistance must be addressed to the Freedom of Information Coordinator at the address detailed in Note 6 above.

Note 8. Are there limits to the information I can ask for?

YES. Confidentiality is sometimes necessary to ensure the effectiveness of the Council's decision-making and to protect commercial interests, information provided in confidence, personal information and other important interests. For these reasons, some categories of Council information are not covered by the commitment to provide information. Nevertheless, it is the Council's aim to ensure that information should be made available unless it is clearly not in the public interest to do so. All requests for information will be considered on their merits.

Note 9. How do I describe the information I am asking for?

If at all possible, describe the information as fully as you can to enable the Council to identify and locate it. If you are requesting personal information, please state precisely in whose name the information is held. You will not normally be given access to the personal information of another person unless you have obtained the written consent of that person (refer to Notes 4 and 5 above). Where you provide insufficient information to enable the Council to identify or locate the information you are asking for or where your request is ambiguous, the Council will as far as practicable provide you with assistance to enable you to describe more clearly the information you are requesting. The aim of this assistance will be to clarify the nature of the information sought and not to determine your aims or motivation for asking for the information.

Note 10. What happens if the Council does not hold the information?

The Council may not hold the information you are asking for because the information may have been destroyed in accordance with the Council's data retention policies or the information may be held by another public body. In such cases, you will be told that the Council does not hold the information. Where the Council believes that the information is held by another public body and that it would be appropriate to transfer your request to that other body, you will be asked whether you have any objections to the Council making the transfer. The public body will be asked whether it consents to your application being transferred to it. Your application will only be transferred with your consent and with the consent of the other public body.

Note 11. Can the Council charge a fee?

YES. Charges may apply in respect of the search and retrieval of information in addition to charges relating to photocopying, postage, video, tape, disk and computer runs. Full details of charges levied by the council are available from the Freedom of Information Co-ordinator at the address detailed in Note 6 above.

Note 12. How do I receive the information I have asked for?

You are entitled to say how you wish the information to be communicated to you. This may be by letter, in the form of a digest or summary of the information or by inspection of the information at the Council's Offices on a date and at a time to be mutually agreed between you and the Council's Freedom of Information Co-ordinator.

Note 14. Can the Council refuse my request for information?

YES. Vexatious and repeated requests and/or applications made with the aim of frustrating the operations of the Council may be refused. The Council may refuse to accede to a request for information where the cost of compliance has not been met (refer to Note 11 above). The Council may also refuse to accede to a request for information where the information is considered to be exempted under FOI (refer to Note 8 above). You will be given an explanation of the reasons for refusing your request for information.

Note 15. Can I appeal against the Council's decision to refuse my request for information?

YES. If you are not satisfied with the decision i.e. your request has been refused or where you consider that your request has not been properly handled and the issue cannot be resolved in discussion with the Freedom of Information Co-ordinator, you may ask for an 'internal review' of the decision under the Council's Complaints Procedure. Your request for an internal review must be submitted within 4 weeks of the date of the decision to:

The Complaints Co-ordinator, Sevenoaks District Council,
Council Offices, Argyle Road, Sevenoaks, Kent TN13 1HG
Tel: 01732 227309
Email: feedback@sevenoaks.gov.uk
Web-site: www.sevenoaks.gov.uk

If you are not satisfied with the decision on 'internal review', or where the Council has failed to respond to you within the time specified in the Complaints Procedure or within the time agreed between you and the Council you may apply to the Information Commissioner for an independent review at the following address:

The Information Commissioner, Wycliffe House, Water Lane
Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
Tel: 01625 545700
Web-site: www.dataprotection.gov.uk/dpr/foi.nsf

Note 16. Who do I contact for further information or assistance on Freedom of Information?

The Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from any Government Publications Sales Office and from the Information Commissioner's Web site <http://www.dataprotection.gov.uk/dpr/foi.nsf>. For any further information you may require in relation to your rights of access to information under FOI please contact the Freedom of Information Co-ordinator at the address detailed in Note 6 above.
